

TIPS TO CONSIDER WHEN LEADING DIFFERENT TYPES OF TEAMS

01

There are many types of teams, finding the right type for the work can significantly improve results.

02

Leaders need to develop their own skills when leading different types of team.

03

If you have a member of the team with multiple managers or leads, help them to establish clear boundaries and priorities.

04

As a leader, take an interest in the other projects your members are involved in.

05

Talented people will be selected to join more teams, so ensure they are not over burdened and stressed.
