

THE KEY PRINCIPLES OF POSITIVE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

01

People are intrinsically motivated to do their best work

02

The managers role is to create the right environment to achieve their people's best work

03

Everyone takes personal responsibility and accountability for producing their best work

04

Trust and respect are the foundations of high performance

05

Conversations and empowerment are critical for high performing teams